

Largest biodynamic tasting soon

The UK's largest dedicated tasting of biodynamic wines to date will take place on November 10 when over 40 producers – all members of the Syndicat International des Vignerons en Culture Bio-dynamique – will show a range of wines from their portfolios. The venue has yet to be announced but trade members can register at ew-pr.co.uk/registration.

A fruity day for biodynamics

The biggest UK tasting of biodynamic wines takes place in London on November 10. Before any smart alecs out there do the inevitable Google search: yes, that is a fruit day. We got there before you.
